Jerome 2 units with lounge corner - arm left

Jerome

Jerome is a series of modular sofas and poufs with a classic yet contemporary expression. The various modules can be combined to suit your needs and can easily be separated if new needs should arise. Its extra seat depth and soft padding give the sofa an elegant and comfortable design, which possesses clear references to clean, architectural lines. The modular sofa is available in several variants, including a removable backrest that is lightly weighted to create a solid and functional foundation. The modules are also available with accompanying wooden trays and can be put together as a beautiful 3-seater sofa or with an extra large chaise longue if more space is needed.
