Lomi 2½ seater sofa

Lomi

German Meike Harde's intention with Lomi was to combine distinctive lounge aesthetics with the more stringent Scandinavian design universe. The result is a sofa where the cushions are positioned on a base with no-zag springs that are connected closely together to provide exceptional comfort. The legs and frame are precisely positioned to add elegance and lightness to the sofa, while the interior construction in FSC-certified wood and the inviting armrests enhance the design's craftsmanship properties.
